Headline:
Another fine and dry day.

Today:
After a cold start, with some patchy frost in places, it will be another fine and dry day with plenty of sunny spells. Some fair-weather cloud will build through the afternoon. Feeling warm. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Tonight:
A cloudier night than recently for the far west but staying dry for all. Patchy frost or fog remains possible, especially for eastern areas, although less widespread than recently. Minimum temperature 0 deg C (32 deg F).

Tuesday:
A cold, sunny start for most, and remaining largely dry throughout the day. Becoming cloudier in the afternoon, with sunny spells, and the odd isolated shower possible. Feeling warm. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Sunny spells Wednesday, with some scattered showers. Fine and dry with patchy fair-weather cloud for Thursday and Friday, but breezy winds, and gales for exposed locations, in the far southwest.
